

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A CASE OF IT.

Many More Like it in Pendleton. The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Pendleton. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

D. W. Cook, 70 years old and retired from active business, now living on Main street, says: "The dull dragging pain in the small of my back felt as if two giants were tearing me apart, and at times I felt so miserable that I could not stand or walk and was confined to my bed. Urinary weakness set in, especially at night, and I was falling physically every day. At this time I happened to read an ad about Doan's Kidney Pills and was much impressed with the sincerity of the testimonial, which was much similar to the one I am using now. I got a box of pills at the Brock & McComas drug store and they helped me so that I continued using them until I had taken several boxes. Then I could eat, sleep and get around again without suffering the least bit of physical pain. I endorse all of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills."

FIFTIETH JUBILEE

DOCTRINE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OBSERVED.

It is Attended by Over a Thousand Lay Members of the Church From the United States—A Gorgeous, Spectacular and Impressive Affair. Featured With Adornments of Great Value and Beauty—Council of 1854 Officially and Formally Promulgated the Accepted Doctrine.

Rome, Dec. 8.—There was a magnificent spectacle in St. Peter's today on the occasion of the celebration of the jubilee of the proclamation of the Immaculate Conception. Observances in connection with the jubilee have been in progress for a month or more, and the celebration reached a glorious climax today with the celebration of the papal mass in St. Peter's, followed by the solemn crowning by Pius X. of the mosaic picture of "Our Lady" in the choir chapel.

The interior of the vast basilica was illuminated and adorned with magnificent hangings, and the building was filled with a great concourse of people, including all the pontifical dignitaries, diplomats and the Roman nobility. From all parts of the Catholic world prelates and priests had journeyed hither to participate in the celebration. From the United States there was present a pilgrimage of more than 1000 lay members of the church, headed by a distinguished delegation of churchmen that included Bishop O'Donnell of Brooklyn, Bishop Chatard of Indianapolis, President Morrissey of Notre Dame University, and a number of others.

Italian troops kept order in the square in front of St. Peter's, while the pontifical bodyguard was stationed within the cathedral.

Pope Pius, attired in his state robes, was borne on the sedia gestatoria at the head of an imposing procession composed of the entire papal court, 500 patriarchs, cardinals, archbishops and bishops. A roar of cheering arose from the multitude on the pope's appearance, but the applause was quickly hushed by the guards. When the cortege reached the choir the pontiff, took his seat on the pontifical throne, and the cardinals and other ecclesiastics massed around him. The solemn ceremony of the papal mass was then proceeded with. A feature of the impressive ceremonies was the singing of Perosi's new cantata "all' Immacolata."

The crowning of the mosaic picture of "Our Lady" followed the celebration of the papal mass. Exactly 50 years ago today, immediately after the mass in which the dogma of the Immaculate Conception was defined, Pius IX. set a rich crown on this image, but the new crown placed there today by Pope Pius X. is vastly more precious. It consists of 12 large stars, formed of hundreds of precious stones, and united by an aureole of solid gold.

An interesting feature in connection with the present jubilee celebration has been somewhat overshadowed by the brilliant ceremonies in St. Peter's. This is the "Marian congress" now in progress in the vast church of the Twelve Apostles, and in the halls of the Cancellaria and the Roman Seminary. All countries of the civilized world are represented in the congress and also in the Marian exposition, which occupies the eight large halls on the first floor of the Lateran palace.

Origin of Observance.

The festival of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin is traceable in the Greek church from the end of the fifth century, and in the Latin dates from the seventh century. A great controversy prevailed for a long time in the West as to whether, and in what sense the conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary was to be held immaculate, and in what sense the Blessed Virgin herself was to be held conceived without sin.

In the end, at the instance of bishops in various parts of the church, Pope Pius IX. addressed a circular letter to the bishops of each nation calling for their opinion and that of their people as to the faith of the church on the point. On the receipt of replies all but absolutely unanimous, the pope issued a solemn decree in Rome, in a numerous council of bishops, on December 8, 1854, declaring the doctrine to be an article of Catholic belief, and proposing it as such to the universal church. On the promulgation of this dogma, which has been accepted throughout the Catholic world, churches named after the Immaculate Conception sprang up in the United States first, and afterward throughout Christendom generally.

On the occasion, 50 years ago, when the doctrine was formally declared, tablets were placed in St. Peter's recording the names of all the cardinals and bishops who took part in the council. Of all these hundreds the last survivor was the late Pope Leo XIII., whose name occurs on the list far down among the cardinals of the time. The late pope was looking forward eagerly to the jubilee celebration, in which, however, he was to be denied taking part by the hand of death.
